

A Day at the Zoo

Kids With Courage would like to invite all of our friends and families to spend the day at the zoo

June 24th, 2012

We will meet at the main entrance at 11:00 am

This is a great opportunity for families to meet that unfortunately have something in common

It is also a great time to allow our kids to meet and play together.

Everyone will be responsible for the cost of getting into the zoo and rides

Bring a sack lunch, sun screen and a smile
